BELIEVE me, you've started something by your description of the widower's troubles.

By tomorrow you will be receiving millions of letters from women readers, stating that they feel sorry for him! It is certain that the feminine readers of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER are all worked up with with touriosity and sympathy.

By WINNIFRED HARPER COOLEY

not wholly honest with oneself: Let him sit down and ponder just what he wants of a woman, and just what he wants of a woman and jus ones and the unmarried ones!

our sex may have been caused by his eagerness, after years of repression and him down, he wakes up, and turns to as being sincere, in a sense, and yet ower, it works both ways!

The Woman's Exchange

Yes. You Can Do It

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Would you kindly inform me if it is possible to make connections from Conshonocken to Sears. Roebuck & Co., Roeseveit Boul-vard, by train, and how?

A READER,
You can go by way of the Philadelphia and Reading Hailway from Conshonocken to Columbia avenue, where you will change cars for Summerdale. This is right near your destination, and you will have no trouble in reaching it from there.

Exercise Will Do It

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Would you kindly tell me how to reduce the hips? Mine are out of all preportion to the rest of my body, so I would appreciate any help you could give me. L. M. O. Walking is a good form of exercise that will help you reduce in this way.

And another excellent idea is to join a class in calisthentics, for the gymnustic exercises you'll get will be bound to ald you. Your instructor could give you some special ones to work out by yourself, too.

About Short Stories

To the Editor of Woman's Page. Dear Madam—Can you please tell me where to sell short stories, such as those that are written in the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER every evening? And also the requirements, whether your story has to be typewritten? If they accept your story, what is the average price? J. C. W.

If you send me your name and ad-dress and a stamped envelope I'll be gad to send you a list of syndicates that accept stories of this kind. Your manuscript should be typewritten, unless you can write an unusually clear hand, and only one side of the paper should be used.

Prices vary according to the nature of the story and the publication that accepts it.

Work to Do in the Evening

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam-I am a reader of your

Help for Animals To the Editor of Woman's Pane

Dear Madam-Not long ago I read a cat, due to the treatment which it re-ceived. I think it is our duty to try to help our little friends before we put them to death. The treatment is free; the medicine is very cheap. I lope this will help others.

A FRIEND TO ANIMALS.

This is a splendid thing for all those with pets to know about, and fine, too, to think that any one can take advantage of it. One surely would not want to put an animal out of his misery veterinarian can do nothing

Things You'll Love to Make

loudoir Cap From an Oblong of Silk You can make a charming cap like the one illustrated from an oblong of lik or georgette. Cover two five-inch circles of buckram with silk or velvet. Out out of the centers one and one-half-inch circles. Buttonhole the cut does with silk. Bead or embroider like with silk. Bead or embroider covered circles. Trim the edges with narrow lace. Use the same kind of lace for all edges of the silk oblong. Gather up one short side of the silk and pull it through one of the circles. It the ring in place. Fit the cap to the oblong through the other short of the oblong through the other stitch both rings securely in and your becoming boudoir cap the same kind. This makes an attractive place.

Among the Gentler Sex

curiosity and sympathy.

"A third of them are doubtless at his moment making a house to house canvass of West Philadelphia, finquiring 'Is there a widower here who wants a dependable, affectionate wife?'

Another third would like to, but won't.

wants a dependable, affectionate wife? Another third would like to, but won't! And the remaining third probably are married, and they will divert their reflections from how to hold a husband to 'I wonder how it would seem if Joe could really understand me, as this widower fellow with the aching heart surely would? So much for us women. "That boast of his 'I've let women alone for the past ten years' sounds interesting—if true! The cynicism has a familiar ring; all the men are that way, nowadays. A friend of mine insists that there are two kinds of women that he cannot understand: the married ones and the unmarried ones!

sentimental. Among the sentimental, some timidly hinted that they would like to know so "good and clean and conscientious a man."

Along the line of argument is one from a woman who signs herself "A Happy Widow," ("There ain't no such animal!" sneers the male reader.)

She says, "I always spend a few minutes reading Woman's Life and Love,—and I cannot resist answering the widower who has troubles because women do not measure up to his requirements. How about a widow's troubles, never finding the man who suits her, and who is attracted to a simple, honest soul? If she is plain and sincere, and of a saving disposition, she is out of of a saving disposition, she is out of date, and he accepts her at her face CERIOUSLY, though, this consci- value, but falls for the first flapper that oneliness, to unload his heart on some the less ornamental type: but nine times one, without first ascertaining whether out of ten this one has, by that time, or not she were the sympathetic, un- gotten wise to him, and declines to be derstanding type of woman. Idealists a last resort! It is no fun to be second always are sensitive, and most of us choice, and most widows feel that men know that it is only the rare person are a bit shopworn and on a bargain who cares a pin for our troubles. counter by the time they are forty, and Laugh and the world laughs with you; have lived and loved many times. They weep and you weep alone. lose faith in men, as the best men "Then, too, there is such a thing sometimes do in women. So, Mr. Wid-

Coat Incorporating

By CORINNE LOWE

their power, it must be admitted they rette? I left mine with my other things are gaining some influence over the mode. The tier impulse is found made brought to view an ornate, elabmode. The tier impulse is found and brought to view an ornate, clabcolumn and enjoy it very much, and would appreciate it very much if you chiefly in frocks where we see them would appreciate it very much if you chiefly in frocks where we see them arranged in a group of three and with ning from 5:30 to 9 o'clock. Can you a lack of fullness which does not for a moment interfere with the slim silting.

The tier impulse is found and brought to view an ormate, elab-cornely monogrammed cigarette case.

"Can you stand these? What brand do you like?"

"Cheap ones. Just enough Turkish." the girl returned with an impulse is found?

"Charley returned tolerantly. He was remembering the look of gratitude in houstles. Often, too, the tier motivation of the process of the standard of the typewriting companies you would be in a position to get work of this kind, as they often have calls for stenographers, And, of course, there are various places, such as, for instance, the vocation bureau at the Y. W. C. A., where you could apply for work. I hope you will be successful.

To the latter manifestation we are fairly accustomed in the coat as well and lung around her neck on a long and lung around her neck on a long and lung around her neck on a long rope of gold. The next moment she was leaning back, a smile of content on her face, smoking her cigarette with as much enjoyment as a man.

There was a sound of smothered to size panels.

Sorry for her, couldn't be as I and lung around her neck on a long of gold. The next moment she was leaning back, a smile of content on her face, smoking her cigarette with as much enjoyment as a man.

There was a sound of smothered to size of the folder. which folded like a telescope and lung around her neck on a long and lung around her n encountered in this coat of black du-vetyn trimmed with fox.

Not content with this arresting dif-ference of skirt treatment, the wrap incorporates two other striking features. One is a wide sash of black satin rib letter in the column from some one who had a little kitten that was very ill. I should like to tell about the Veterinary Hospital, University of Pennsylvania, Thirty-ninth street and Woodland avenue. the bodice section. Of course, there is nothing spectacular about the employ-I took my little kitten there and thought it would die before I reached the hospital. Today it is a fine big and coats. However, the irregular deceived. I think it is care duty in the sign with which the sither of the ceived. applied constitutes the originality of effect.

Can You Tell? By R. J. and A. W. Bodmer

Who Discovered the True Theory of

For many years (up to 1778) the chemists of the world thought that all substances which would burn contained an invisible substance called "phlogis-ton," and that when a substance was hurned it gove up this phlogiston into the air. This theory was advanced by a very eminent chemist. Ernest Stahl. and because he was so noted scientists that many substances became heavier of the house, and the boys do not have when burned, and that another chemist, John Mayow, had proved clearly that the air was made up of two parts oxygen and nitrogen. He did not more suitable for a boys room. The know these elements as we know them more suitable for a boys' room. The today and the world does not give him windows and the space nearby make he died before he had time to spread his knowledge and prove his discoveries in the face of the beliefs of others more the face of the beliefs of others more noted who paid no attention to his claims. He called oxygen "fire air."

Lavoisier known as the founder of modern chemistry, was the first to susting this theory of "phlogiston" window, will go near a second window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window and a bed or beds with a small window. was fa'se and began a series of experiments with the idea of getting at the truth. He did not succeed in this until he had worked eight vears on the problem. He proved easily that when metals were burned the remainder was heavier than before, but he could not for a long time make the metals give back what they had taken from the air. He finally succeeded in doing this by reversing the experiment which Priestley, the discoverer of oxygen, had made in obtaining pure oxygen. He thus proved that air shrinks when substances are burned in it because the substances are burned in pure oxygen.

He proved this to be oxygen. He also showed that a diamond is pure carbon by hurning a diamondlin pure oxygen.

He proved this to be oxygen. He also showed that a diamond is pure carbon by hurning a diamondlin pure oxygen.

He proved that in the proved the remainder was headed or the air. He proved that air shrinks when substances are burned in it because the substances are burned in pure oxygen.

He proved that the proved easily that when metals give bright braided rugs will look well on the floor and there should be a lamp on the table by the bed and another near the desk. The lamp shades should be of parchment with painted ships or animals. If the room has a rafter ceiting, the walls will look well done in white. Otherwise they could be painted or tinted tan, gray or yellow. Thin white. Otherwise they could be painted or tinted tan, gray or yellow. Thin white. Otherwise they could be painted or tinted tan, gray or yellow. Thin white. Otherwise they could be painted or tinted tan, gray or yellow. Thin white or tinted tan, gray or yellow. Thin will prove the proved that a fact that the proved that the floor and there should be a lamp of the floor was fa'se and began a series of experiwas fa'se and began a series of experitable nearby will make up a third was fa'se and began a series of experitable nearby will make up a third was fa'se and began a series of experitable nearby will make up a third was fa'se and began a series of experi-mirror as well as the foolish little lacy handkerchief and small amount of loose change that its owner would like to have with her at an after-The Reckless Age By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR

> This is the first chapter of a new serial in which Mrs. Batchelor brings out with her usual deft touch the folly of jazzdom and the fact that many flappers are true women at heart. Aline Foster hardened her heart in accordance with the customs of her day, but real love softened it when she was off

It's the newest vanity bag from Paris. Tired of the conventional leather box containing all the necessities of a levely complexion, the l'arisenne made a big jump to this dainty affair of satin in the shape of a Chinese figure on top. There's room inside for powder puff and her at the top of the long staircase.

become oppressive. But, while demanding thus far no popular uncleichten. pretty speech. You're coming on, my

I do not know of anything special in houstle. Often, too, the tier motivation is in the girl returned with an imputed this line, but if you would put your tion is confined to side panels.

To the latter manifestation to bolder, which folded like a telescope

THE HOME

IN GOOD TASTE

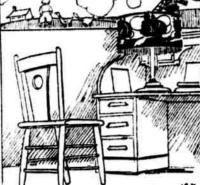

By Harold Donaldson Eberlein

"Oh, well." Aline returned slowly, "it's her hair, and her party, and I think she's having a good time. The boys have all been very nice consider-ing. How many dances have you had with her. Charley?"
"Two," Charley returned promptly.

ish. The girl tented the slender tube dent grin. She fitted the slender tube of tobacco into an exquisite enameled bolder, which folded like a telescope and lung around her neck on a long around

There was a sound of smothered | Tomorrow-Aline and Her Family

LOVE NOTS By KAY KEAN

The Boys' Room

An attic has great possibilities as a boys' room. It is away from the rest Coppright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company more suitable for a boys' room .- The up in the attic.

The End of the Fairy Tale. "Revelation" is the last chapter in he book of marriage!

Let not your husband get a close-up on your disposition lest it show the rinkles therein. Neither lay bare your ecret soul before him For even as the feminine heart yearnoth for the hat with the high-price tag. so doth the heart of man prefer the woman who reveals not her true value. Know you not that when you dis-cover your neighbor's chapeau cost 86 instead of $36, then surely do you lose your interest in it? Remember it will no more encourage man's devotion to know everything self-appointed huntress. about his wife than it will whet his ppetite for him to know every ingre dient in the hash.

Women delight in a bargain. Alas: Men usually become skeptical thereof.

Adventures With a Purse

CHRISTMAS is beginning to peep out in unexpected places, a gift here and a sign there, and if we began ticking off the days on our fingers we'd the credit for the discovery, because centers of attraction for the furniture. realize how very near it is. I passed be died before he had time to spread his discoveries in Occasionally we may find an open fire a window the other day in which were harmledge and prove his discoveries in a window the other day in which were displayed some cards, and I was reminded of the fact that I should have my cards engraved early. I began a search for my plate and couldn't find it any place in the entire house. That means a new one and an added expense, but I was delighted to find that I could get a plate and fifty cards in addition for as low as $1.75. Of course, more expensive ones can be had, but this grade is really splendid for Christmas cards.

What to Do

Wester Wester St

A "Man-Hater" Mas Fallen!

Dear Cynthia—At last, at last have I found a real man pal. Do you're member when the "Three Man Haters" wrote to you? Well, I am one of them and have met the most wonderful pal a girl ever had. He is true blue and a real man. "One of the Hated," dear, I agree with you. Come on, ye readers, and tell me "they all flop sooner or later."

"ONE OF THE MAN HATERS."

"ONE OF THE MAN HATERS." Well, so it has fappened! Congratulations! You're going to get a lot of "I told you so's" from the readers.

"I told you so's" from the readers. What about the other member of the trio, still hating?

No Reason to Give Her Up

Dear Cynthia—Having read your column for many, many months, and noted your valuable advice, I am now going to see what you think of my predicament:

I am neither a Valentino nor a Ben Turpin, I am fairly popular, with the girls of my age, that is between 20 and seen and twelve and remaining until they paid from their many such. Said girl and myself became very friendly with each other and ran about a good bit.

The felow from out of town got very kngry at this and stopped calling to do with me. As this man has a car and used to lake the girl out a great deal I feel that I am cutting be girl of the sirl and let her have the man with a lot of money I would lad too, as I love her dearly.

It's up to the other man. He must have known the chance he ran in introducing you to the girl. If they aren't there's no ireason in the world why you should alte to, as I love her dearly. It's up to the other man. He must have known the chance he ran in introducing you to the girl. If they aren't there's no ireason in the world why you should have nothing to worry about. But it's too bad your friendship should be brown and all those who are approaching the against morality, since the girl was a minor when it was made, and all her earnings were pocketed by the master. And this decision affects all the flowary you feel and suggest that you all three keep up the friendship?

Her Mother "Bawled Him Out"

CHAPTER 1

A Coming-Out Party

(COOD Heavens, it's het.' The Griebs and green feather fan languidly back and forth before her face. It was a love her being and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin at like a fringe, and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin at like a fringe, and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin at like a fringe, and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin two at like a fringe, and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin at like a fringe, and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin at like a fringe, and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin at like a fringe, and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin at like a fringe, and the brows above hat been narrowed to shin at like a fringe, and the lips were sensitive, was marred by a rather been companied to should be the like the construction of t

WHAT'S WHAT By Helen Decie

been the pursuer, weman the pursued. George Bernard Shaw, likes to nir a different theory, to wit, that man is the hunted, woman the huntress. But it real life even G. B. S., as revealed in recent letters, pursued most eagerly the "dark lady," who, after all, married another. Shaw's adored one was true to typetrue to the womanly dignity denied so often by the infatuated playwright. No well-bred girl woos a man as Anne woos the Superman in Shaw's drama. When a girl pursues a man she is breaking social convention as well as violating natural law. And, for her punishment, her pursuit is generally futile, since every man resents equally the usurpation of his racial privilege and the embarrassing situation created by the

A Distinguished Portrayal of the Mode A Package Serves Five

FURS

Caracul Sport COATS Desired Shades at Very Prices

ANDRASSY

Please Tell Me It Took a Woman's Heart to Break Up the Geisha System I'm IRN'T unique for a woman's he to change customs and shotter tree tions. There is many a step form

It Was a Little Japanese Girl Who Fell in Love With a Poor Patron of the House and Gave Up Her Contract

ONCE again the combination of a has been going on in Japan, and not a girl has openly rebelled against it.

It remained for a product of modern

If she left his service voluntarily before the seven years her parents agreed to pay the master the difference between the amount he had spent for her educa-tion and the amount she had carned for

Able of which is striking a direct

One of the body's daily needs is food-iron for the blood. Raisins furnish iron-the natural, organic iron which is most easily assimilated by the system.

Add raisins, therefore, to cakes, cookies, breakfast foods, bread, etc., and you add this benefit as well as luscious flavor. Sun-Maid Raisins should cost you no more than the following prices:

Seeded (in 15 oz. blue pkge.) - 20e Seedless (in 15 oz. red pkge.) - 18c Seeded or Seedless (11 oz.) - 18c Always ask for

Sun-Maid Raisins

Shut-in Exchange

Had Your Iron Today?

Useful and Fancy Articles

Rag Rugs 205 S. 16th Street

Beardsley's Shredded Codfish is one of the most economical foods that you can buy-and one of the easiest to prepare. No soaking or boiling is necessary and ten to fifteen minutes is all the time needed for preparation. Askyourgrocerfor Beardsley's Shredded Codfish—the package with the red band. Get a recipe book from him, too. It shows you how to prepare 14 different and delightful dishes with

BEARDSLEYS Shredded

many a reform, many a radica formation that can be traced

We Made a Lady

a Fur Coat the other day, and she was so delighted that it made her look thin. Now, you know it isn't the fur that makes a figure look thin, but the art and skill of the futrier. Has your furrier that art? If he hasn't, you should see our exhibit of stylish fur garments.

FURRIER

CARTSIDE

1316 WALNUT STREET

Removes All Stains from Clothing. Carpets, Furniture, Without Injury

10c-Tubes-25c Drug, Grocery and Dry Goods Stores See our exhibit-Booth A-15-Food Fair-Nov. 18:25

Tetley's Orange Pekoe is most popular among folks who know and love good tea. It's so downright good.

Makes good TEA a certainty

Figure it out for yourself and you will see the actual saving Pennsylvania Laundry Company
313-327 N. 32 ST PHONES PHONE

J. B. Sheppard & Sons

Your Baby Would Look Sweeter Than . Ever in These Pretty New Clothes

Brush wool and knitted 4-piece Sweater Suits-2 to 6 year sizes-tan, brown, blue, old rose, gray-prices $8 to $14, according to size.

Oliver Twist Suits-linen, in blue and tan; percale, in green, buff, old rose, white—sizes 2 to 4 years—$3.00 to $9.75. Russian Blouse Suits-blue, tan, green, buff-2 to 4 year sizes-$3.50 to $10. Coats - white cashmere and crepella, with touches of handwork and cute embroidered collar and cuffs. White Corduroy Coats. Broadcloth Sizes 1 to 3 years-Prices $5 to $27

1008 Chestnut Street

Hats and caps to match the coats-$2.75 to